The Walnut Creek Library Foundation is a financially independent organization that supports the library through fundraising and community involvement.

Since its founding in 1989, the Foundation has supported many library programs, including free programs and events.

The Foundation raises funds to support the library's mission and to provide library materials, programs, and events.

Thanks to Our Generous Donors

The Walnut Creek Library Foundation receives more than $5 million in annual donations from over 500 contributors, including those who support the library.

Donors have the opportunity to provide annual donations to support the library's mission.

For more information, visit www.wclibrary.org or call 925.935.5395.
To welcome the new library, numerous downtown restaurants and merchants are offering special discounts on July 17 to celebrate Opening Day. Just look for the library card sign in merchant windows and show your library card to receive your Opening Day discount. A full list of participating businesses will be in the Opening Day program.
